ADJUSTMENT TO SUPERVISION:

He advised that he was living with his brother, Daniel Sineath, at 5047 Pemberton Street, Virginia Beach, Virginia, and working part time at Circuit Social in Norfolk, Virginia. A urine sample was collected that day and returned positive for marijuana. Sineath advised that he used marijuana on a regular basis and last used the day before court. He was referred for treatment at The Counseling Center, LLC.

On November 12, 2021, a substance abuse evaluation was completed by The Counseling Center, LLC. It was noted by the counselor that Sineath was "angry and dismissive at the end of the evaluation upon realizing he would be required to participate in substance abuse treatment." He was diagnosed with Cannabis Use Disorder - severe, Alcohol Use Disorder - moderate, R/O Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, R/O Borderline Personality Disorder, and R/O Unspecified Dissociative Disorder. A 10 week treatment program was recommended.

On November 17, 2021, Sineath reported that he changed jobs and was now working full time at Waffle House. He also moved into a rooming house by himself located at 5565 Campus Drive, Virginia Beach, Virginia.

On November 19, 2021, the offender was arrested by Norfolk police for Assault & Battery – Family Member. He was given a bond and released. His next court date is scheduled for February 14, 2022, in Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court. According to Sineath, he got into a physical altercation with his brother.

On November 29, 2021, a urine sample was collected and returned positive for marijuana. The violation was reported to the Court and he was told to continue with group counseling. On January 7, 2022, the offender's counselor at The Counseling Center, LLC, reported that Sineath was discharged unsuccessfully on December 21, 2021, for lack of attendance and motivation for services. He was due to begin treatment on November 30, 2021, but never attended a group session. It was noted that he attempted to sign into the first virtual group on November 30, 2021, but had technical issues. He never called back or attempted to sign in again.
